

Rosentreter,
Harold E.

Greece: Died May 17, 2011 at age 92. He leaves his wife of 71 years of marriage, Ada; daughter, Virginia (Edward) Koneski; his brother, James (Peggy) Rosentreter; grandchildren, Linda (Karl) Lintz, Michael (Suzanne) Viola; great-grandchildren, Sara and Tommy Viola; many nieces and nephews. Harold worked for Rochester Gas & Electric for 44 years as Safety Coordinator for the Gas Division. In his early years he served in the US Army as Staff Sergeant and was a WWII Veteran. Harold also graduated from the Eastman School of Music from the Preparatory Division and specialized in the French horn. He played in and directed many orchestras and bands. He had many solos and entertained at weddings and special events. Harold directed many church choirs including Wesley United Methodist, Greece Baptist, Dewey Ave. Presbyterian Church and First Baptist of Penfield. In earlier years he directed many minstrel shows. Later in his career, he directed show choirs such as the song and dance team known as "The Songsters", the RG&E and Gleason Works Choruses. Harold also had an affinity for handbell music and directed a few handbell choirs as well. An avid model railroader for many years of his life, Harold spent countless hours designing and building two very large railroad layouts in two of his previous homes. World traveling with his wife Ada, was also another of Harold's hobbies. Additionally Harold enjoyed riding his Honda motorcycles for over 30 years into his 80's.

Friends may call Wednesday 4-7 at the funeral home, 777 Long Pond Road (between English & Latta). Memorial Service, 7 PM Thursday at Greece Baptist Church, 1230 Long Pond Road. Friends wishing may contribute to Parkinson's Disease Foundation.
